Arthur Rea scored the winner in overtime to lead the Mississauga Lightning Special Olympics floor hockey team to a 3-2 win over Toronto Metro Leafs in the championship game of the third annual Mississauga Invitational Floor Hockey Tournament.

Down 2-0 at the start of the third period, the Lightning got rolling on a goal by Mike St. Louis. Tournament scoring leader Aaron Lindsay, with seven, tied the game in the final minute, setting the stage for Rea's heroics.

The win pushed the Lightning's overall record to 16-0 including regular season, exhibition and tournament games. Earlier in the year, they won the University of Toronto at Mississauga Campus Invitational.

The Mississauga Lightning Special Olympics members include Craig Brown, Ryan Azzopardi, Troy Ford-King, Jason Gow, Ryan Lamey, Jeff Letarte, Brian Lindsay, Brent Midghall, Derek Yates, Mark Ellis, Mark Iwasiw, Mark Lamey, Aaron Lindsay, Mark Pszczolowski, Arthur Rea, Russell Slaney, Morgan Smith, Mike St. Louis, Blaise Stretton, Brendan Thomson, Lorenzo Turi and Mike White.
